Greatest number of inmates, 4; present number 3; John A. Winning, Robt. P. Jones and Chas. F. Merrill. Oct. 26, Mary Leighton was discharged from asylum, and taken to the farm. Her own comfort and the safety of others demanded special preparations, in fact her whole stay at the farm was expensive. She was recommitted Jan. 12. At the opening of the year, we found it necessary to make quite extensive repairs on the ell of the house. The cash outlay was for materials, as Mr. Lord did nearly all the work.

An inventory of stock, etc., at the farm, Feb. 20, shows 4 cows, 1 horse, 2 pigs, 17 hens, 16 tons hay, 18 cords wood fitted and 12 tons ice.

A complete list of supplies, farming and bridge tools, household goods, etc., on file at Town office.

Lodgings for tramps 11, meals 23.

School Report.

Whole number of scholars,	438
Total length of each school,	34 weeks

Fellow Citizens :

Again it becomes our duty in performing the labors of a responsible office, to which you have repeatedly called us, to submit a report of our schools for the past year.

In making a general review, we are glad to say that no serious difficulty has occurred, and with few exceptions everything has passed pleasantly ; in some instances there has not been so much accomplished as we had hoped for, while in others, our expectations were fully realized.

Never within our knowledge of the schools has there been so much sickness among the scholars, and teachers as well, as we have experienced the past year ; and of such a nature as to keep many of them out a part, and in some instances, the whole of a term, seriously affecting the progress and lowering the average attendance.

By reference to the table you will find some of our schools to have been very small—too small to be profitable, and we would, at this time, present for your careful consideration the question of lessening the number in the near future.

In the effort to secure better schools, we are met by a great hindrance — the lethargy of too many of the people upon educational matters. They will vote money for the schools, but there their responsibility and interest seem to end. As for us, we would urge less money and more enthusiasm. In many families there seems to be but little home stimulus. The child is sent to school because that seems to be the proper thing to do at the opening of the term. A word to parents may not be out of place here. Look after your children and see that they are punctual at school, and that in good season. Tardiness is a pest to the school room. Encourage them in their studies, and when possible visit the school and see for yourselves how your children are getting along. Have you any better interests? But above all, do not find fault with the teacher in the presence of scholars: if any serious difficulty exists, have an investigation by your committee rather than take your children out of school or injure it with ill reports.

In conclusion, fellow citizens, we hope we may more fully appreciate the importance of our public schools, and endeavor to discharge our several duties faithfully in the cause of popular education.

Respectfully submitted,

F. B. BLANCHARD,

Supervisor of Falmouth
